Thank you for your time in reviewing my work. Every business owner seeks a capable and responsible someone to oversee the company's most crucial department, marketing. You've come to the right place if you're searching for a professional social media marketer to manage your whole company's marketing.

As a professional Virtual Assistant, I've worked on a wide range of corporate projects as well as various local client projects, some of which I've included in the portfolio's latter parts. I was in charge of all social media channels in such ventures. Based on the available budget, I designed a thorough marketing approach. In my marketing plan, one thing is certain: "minimum investment, maximum reward." I've been pretty effective at freelancing in my 5 years of experience; some of my sample outcomes may be found in the portfolio's latter part. I've also finished content design, writing, SEO, and other projects that were assigned to me.

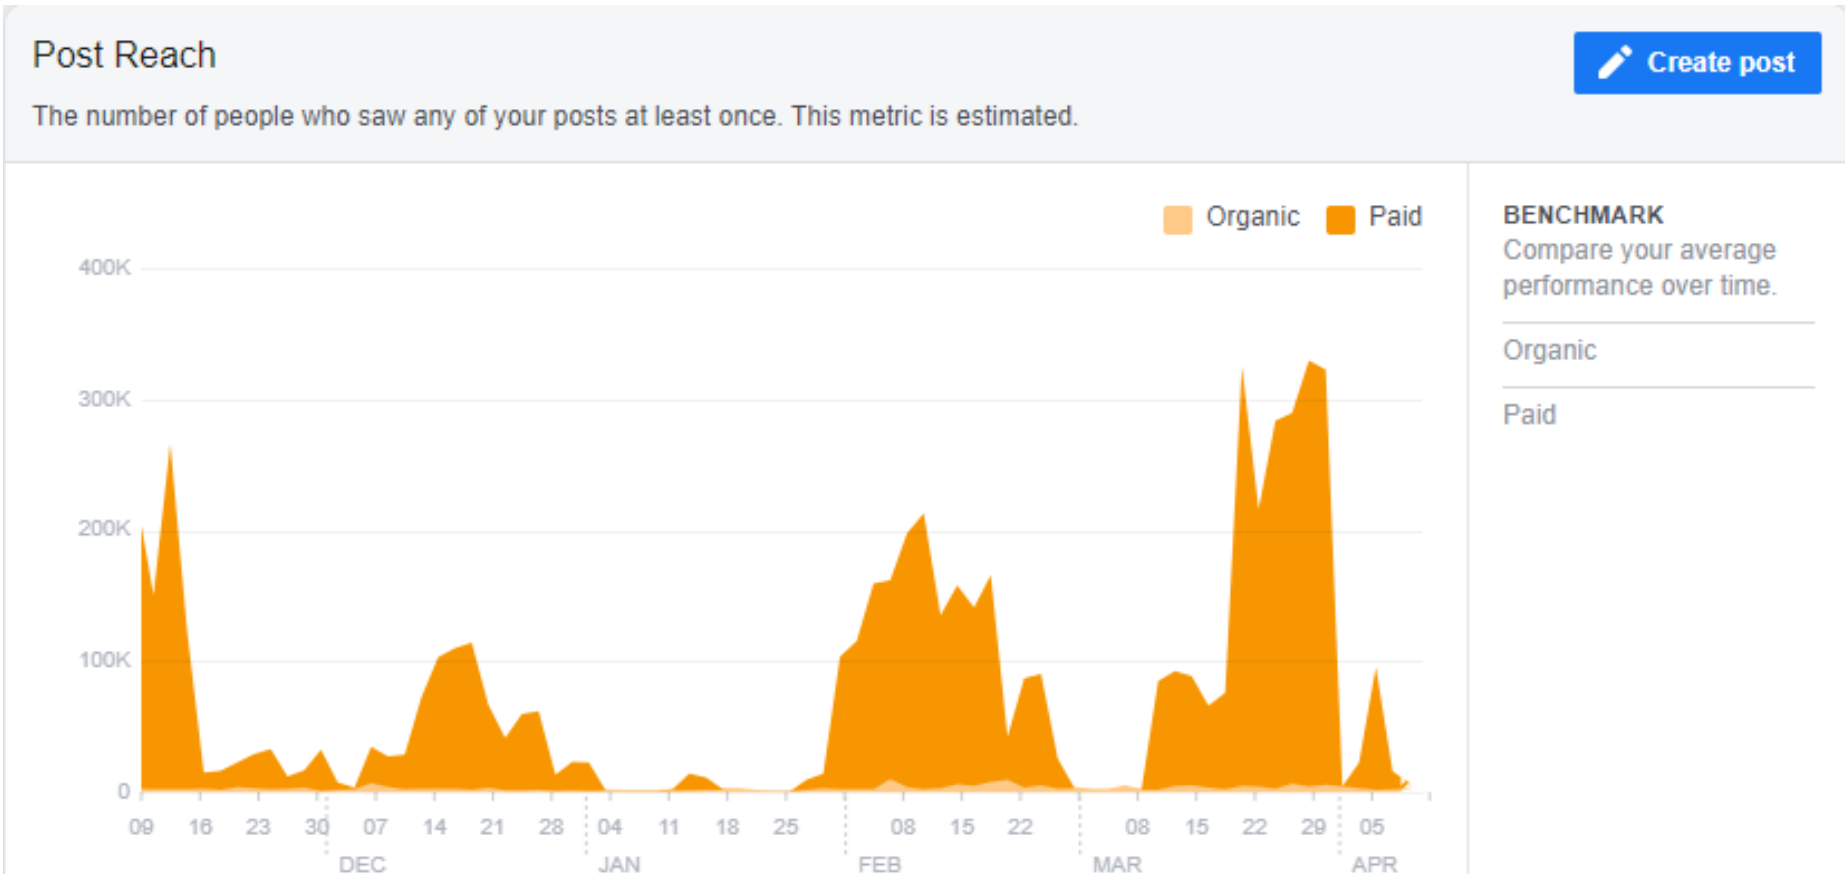

If you entrust me with the marketing of your firm, I guarantee that I will deliver high-quality results from my marketing strategy. What makes you want to hire me? 1. I spent a long time working as a Facebook and Instagram ads manager. 2. I am currently a level 1 seller on Fiverr (<https://www.fiverr.com/>). 3. I can help your clients with the most challenging Facebook advertising tasks, such as "pixel setup, conversion, landing page tracking, retargeting, remarketing, custom audience, and email list obligations." 4. You may seek an interview with me if you are really confident in my talents., SEO,

Seller kept me posted about the gig and the Twitter followers started to come in right away. Not all at once, but gradually and in an organic way. Very pleased with the results of this first campaign. Will certainly be back again.

It was great working with Stellios! The basic package brought me around 200 new followers, although I doubt whether most of them are organic. But that doesn't matter, I needed some followers to boost my account and I got it. Hope to work with him again.

Really good communication - does not tell fairy tales. New followers are quite passive, however do not look like fake ones. That was promised and delivered.

Delivered according to his description. Good communication, open and transparent. Indeed, the engagement is low, however, he was quite open about it as it is not targeted traffic. I do recommend this service.

Excellent service provided by Stelios, in fact he delivered more than what he had promised. His communication skill is commendable too, including explaining SEO concept to beginner. In summary, his service is highly recommended.

The seller promises 150-180 followers. I used it simply to get a quick bump alongside my own ads. Results of this gig are very poor. I only received 130 followers. Keep in mind that these are completely non-targeted and non-engaging. That puts each bot-like follower at 26 cents. You can easily get real semi-targeted followers via twitter ads worldwide for 10-14 cents each. If I received closer to 180-200 I'd have said this gig is ok for what it is and messaged that to the seller upon start. Not in this case.
